Lucy and Nicholas

We live in a small, old house in Boston. It has two bedrooms, a living room, a dining room, a kitchen—and there's a bathroom, of course!

In the living room there are two armchairs and a sofa. We also have a television, a VCR, and a CD player. On the wall there are two pictures. It's a very comfortable room, and in the evening we sit and watch television or listen to music.

In the dining room there is a table and four chairs. There are a lot of photographs of our families on the walls. The kitchen is new. We have breakfast in the kitchen, but we have lunch and dinner in the dining room. We have a small yard and two cats. We are very happy in our house!

Hi, I'm Mitsuo. I'm a businessman and I live in Tokyo. I usually work on Saturday, so I love Sunday mornings. I get up late—eleven or twelve o'clock. Then I watch a baseball game on TV and drink "ocha"—Japanese green tea. After that, I usually have chicken or fish for lunch.

Hi, I'm Susan. I'm from Los Angeles. I always have a burger and fries for lunch, and a bottle of soda in the evening. My mom cooks a big dinner—meat and vegetables. But I never eat the vegetables.

Dear Carol,
We're having a great time in Phuket.
We're sitting in a restaurant near the beach. Paul's reading the newspaper and I'm writing this postcard to you! The sun's great and it's really hot.

We come to Thailand every year. We usually stay with my friends Chao and Sarai, but this year we're in a hotel because Sarai's parents are staying with them.

The beaches here are fantastic. We go swimming every morning. Did you enjoy your vacation in Mexico? See you soon.

Love,
Lisa and Paul

Where's our car!?

Last Saturday John and Vanessa Smith visited Los Angeles. They went by car. They left their car on a street near the city center and went sightseeing. At four o'clock they wanted to go back to their car. But where was it? They forgot the name of the street! They looked for the car for four hours and then went to the police.

The Smiths

"We can't find our car," said Mr. Smith to the police officer.

"Where did you leave it?" asked the officer.

"Uh ... near a palm tree, I think," said Mr. Smith.

"But there are lots of palm trees in LA, Mr. Smith!"

Mr. and Mrs. Smith stayed in Los Angeles for five days, but they didn't find their car. On Wednesday, they caught the plane back to Phoenix. A week later the police in Los Angeles called the Smiths. "We found your car today," the officer said. "Would you like to pick it up?"

American Headway is a multilevel series for adults and young adults who want to use American English both accurately and fluently. Grammar and vocabulary are taught and explained thoroughly, and all four language skills are developed systematically. American Headway combines the best of traditional methods with more recent approaches to make the learning of English stimulating, motivating, and effective.

American Headway Starter can be used by true beginners. It provides a foundation in the structure of the language, gradually building students' understanding of the basic grammar, vocabulary, and functions of English.

Key features

- Simple skills work, where all four skills are gradually introduced in manageable communicative activities
- Universal topics selected from a wide variety of material
- In-depth treatment of grammar, with clear presentations, self-check exercises in the Grammar Spot, and detailed explanations in the Grammar Reference followed by extensive practice activities
- Systematic vocabulary syllabus, including dictionary training and work on systems such as collocation
- Everyday English section, which practices functional language and social situations

This Workbook contains further consolidation exercises that review the grammatical input of the Student Book, vocabulary exercises, and a writing syllabus. An optional Workbook Cassette/CD is available for the Workbook.
